

Assessment Project for Spanish II, Celebrando los Días Festivos

You, or you and a friend, must research a holiday in a Spanish speaking country. You will create a Power Point that describes how the holiday is celebrated. . During your presentation, you will pretend that you actually celebrated this holiday in your country. The presentation must be in the first person and past tense. Photoshop some pictures of yourself into your presentation for fun!

Requirements –

- 5 slides if alone, 10 with a partner
- Must be memorized. Can have words/phrases, not sentences, on PP to prompt you what to say.
- Describe the holiday: where is it? why is it celebrated? what happens? what are the traditions? how did it start? who celebrates the holiday?
- The research sheet is due at the end of class, May 5th. Your presentation is due Monday, May 11th. We will be working on these projects in class the week of May 4th.
- This grade counts as your speaking final.
- Some holiday ideas –
 - Día de los Reyes
 - New Years
 - Posadas
 - Running of the Bulls
 - Christmas
 - Easter
 - Independence Day
 - Día de Amigos
 - Mother's/Father's Day
 - Carnival
 - Quinceanera

Nombre _____ Hora _____ Fecha _____

Name of country/city:

Holiday:

Date of celebration:

Why is it celebrated?

What happens? What are the traditions? Food?

How did it start?

Who celebrates the holiday (young people, old people, Christians, women, children, etc)?

Name of country/city:

Holiday:

Date of celebration:

Why is it celebrated?

What happens? What are the traditions? Food?

How did it start?

Who celebrates the holiday (young people, old people, Christians, women, children, etc)?